2001 to present

B.S. Ed. - Bowling Green State University

M. Ed. - Cleveland State University

Jennifer Felker is the Assistant Superintendent of the Educational Service Center (ESC) of Cuyahoga County. She is responsible for managing and supervising the day-to-day operations and staff of the ESC internal offices. She assists in all renovations/updates related to the ESC's facilities and oversees budgets, federal and state grants, local professional development committee (LPDC), new programming, technology, facilities, and internal staff contracts.

As the Assistant Superintendent of the ESC, Jennifer also assists in supporting the departments of Professional Development, Teaching and Learning, State Support Team Region 3, and Federal and State Grants. She supports 31 school districts with varying needs across Cuyahoga County and beyond.

Jennifer has held positions as a special education teacher/intervention specialist, principal, supervisor of special education, and past director of operations for the ESC. Felker has been an educator for more than 15 years and carries experience as a teacher and an administrator in both urban and suburban school systems (Toledo Public Schools, Brooklyn City Schools, Maple Heights City Schools, and Olmsted Falls City Schools).

As an administrator in Cuyahoga County, Jennifer has been a leader in "Women in Leadership" – a network of women leaders, president for the Cuyahoga Valley Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa from 2005-2008, and has been nominated and awarded "Administrator of the Year" in 2008 by the Educational Office Professionals of Ohio.

Jennifer is married and is very blessed to have two sons and a daughter - often referred to as the "Felker Triplets." The Felker family resides in Sagamore Hills.
