

Educational Service Center of Cuyahoga County

State Support System (SST) Region 3

Erin Green, Ed.S. Educational Consultant

2011 to present

B.A. Education, Hiram College

M.A. Curriculum, Instruction & Professional Development,
Malone College

Ed.S. Instructional Leadership, Nova Southeast University.

Contact:

erin.green@esc-cc.org

Office: (216) 901-4207

Erin Green is an Educational Consultant at the Educational Service Center (ESC) of Cuyahoga County under the auspices of the Ohio State System of Support known as the State Support Team (SST) for Region 3 (Cuyahoga County). Her areas of concentration include curriculum, instruction, assessment, and special education. She has experience leading districts through curriculum mapping, pacing, textbook review, and special education compliancy.

Erin holds current licensure as an elementary teacher (grades 1-8), special education (SLD K-12), and administrative specialist (curriculum and instruction). Erin graduated in 1998 from Hiram College, where she also lettered in Women's Soccer for four years, with a Bachelor's Degree in elementary education and SLD certification. She received her Master's Degree in 2002 from Malone University in the area of Curriculum, Instruction and Professional Development. She then earned her Education Specialist's Degree from Nova Southeastern University in the area of Instructional Leadership.

Erin taught as an elementary and middle school teacher in the Dover City Schools for six years while also serving as the Head Girl's Soccer Coach. Subsequently she taught special education at the middle and junior high school levels in Perry Local and Copley-Fairlawn City School Districts. She then served as a curriculum consultant/OIP facilitator with the Portage County Educational Service Center for two years and most recently was the Special Education Coordinator for West Geauga Local School District. Erin is an adjunct professor for Akron University (Wayne Campus) and Ashland University.

Erin and her husband reside in Akron.