

rehmp@bbhcsd.org
440/740-4125

Patricia A. Rehm, Ph.D.
Gifted Education Supervisor

1990 to present

A.A. - Glen Oaks Community College

B.S. - Western Michigan University

M.Ed. - Kent State University

Ph.D. - Kent State University

Pat Rehm has worked with a variety of school districts in the Educational Service Center (ESC) of Cuyahoga County's Gifted and Talented Consortium. Currently, she works with the Brecksville/Broadview Heights Schools. Her supervisory responsibilities include gifted student identification, program development and implementation, teacher development/resource, and leadership for consortium-wide gifted student activities.

Pat is certified to teach elementary grades 1-8 plus holds a license in gifted education and supervision. Pat has worked in Michigan, Tennessee, and Ohio. She has taught a wide range of students from kindergarten to senior citizens.