Many parents feel overwhelmed and isolated. Their child has been struggling for a long time.

- They suspect he/she may have a disability.
- Their child was born or diagnosed with a disability.
- What do they do to ensure they get an appropriate education?

This introductory workshop on becoming an active participant would be beneficial to families whose children are recently identified or who are undergoing evaluation for eligibility for special education services. This workshop will help parents

- better understand the special education process,
- learn how to prepare/organize prior to individualized education program (IEP) meeting, actively participant during the meeting and debrief/process materials after the meeting, and
- connect to information and resources that will help organize .

It is not enough for a parent to know the law and their rights but communication,, organization and having a knowledge base of how to proceed through the process assists families in becoming an active participant in the planning and development of the IEP.

Registration deadline is Monday, April 23, 2012.
